GIVE THANKS

WELCOME

BREATH OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

OPENING PRAYER

Psalm 92:1-2, 4

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness at night. For you have made me glad, O Lord, in all you have done, and I sing for joy at the works of your hands.

EVENING PRAYER & LORD’S PRAYER

Terry Hinks

Mighty God, we rejoice in your reckless and extravagant love scattered among us and found in the mud and thorns of life. We rejoice that your will for us and for the world is not one of carefully appointed judgement or neatly wrapped rewards. Your aim and desire for all your creation is a cup full and overflowing with good wine, a banquet for all to share, a harvest of full and ripe grains, a growing tree in which all can make their nest. Your gifts, freely offered, are life in all its fullness, hope in abundance, peace that passes all understanding, love that none can measure from which nothing can separate us.

SCRIPTURE

Psalm 100

New Revised Standard Version

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth. Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing. Know that the Lord is God. It is he that made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name. For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

CLOSING PRAYER

St. Francis of Assisi

You are holy, Lord, the only God, and your deeds are wonderful. You are love, You are wisdom. You are humility, You are endurance. You are rest, You are peace. You are joy and gladness. You are all our riches, and You suffice for us. You are our protector, You are our guardian and defender. You are courage, You are our haven and hope. You are our faith, and great consolation. You are our eternal life, great and wonderful Lord, merciful Savior, God almighty. Amen.
